INCOME TAX ACT

CHAPTER 1: PRELIMINARY

1. Introduction and citation

- (a) This Act contains the provisions for the imposition of “Income Tax” in the Maldives, and sets out the relevant rules.
- (b) This Act shall be cited as the “Income Tax Act”.

2. Persons affected by this Act

The provisions in this Act shall apply to the following persons.

- (a) Any person who is a resident of the Maldives where that person derives income from the Maldives or elsewhere; and
- (b) Any person who derives income from the Maldives, whether or not that person is a resident of the Maldives.

CHAPTER 2: OBLIGATION TO PAY TAX

3. Income Tax

Subject to Section 12 of this Act, tax, referred to as “income tax”, shall be charged in accordance with Section 7, Section 8 and Section 9 of this Act on a person’s income of the following types:

- (a) Remuneration;
- (b) Income derived from any business;
- (c) Income derived from the rental of movable or immovable property;
- (d) Dividends;
- (e) Interest;
- (f) Annuities, pensions, and retirement benefits;
- (g) Beneficiary income;
- (h) Fees for technical services;
- (i) Commissions;
- (j) Royalty;
- (k) Income derived from the disposal of movable, immovable, intellectual or intangible property in respect of which a deduction for capital allowance may be claimed under Section 25 of this Act;
- (l) Gains derived from the disposal of movable, immovable, intellectual or intangible property in respect of which a deduction for capital allowance is not allowed under Section 25 of this Act;
- (m) Income or gains of any other kind, including amounts received for no consideration and proceeds of any criminal or other illegal activity.

4. Withholding Tax

Tax, referred to as “withholding tax” shall be tax chargeable on a person’s income that is subject to withholding tax in accordance with Sections 54 and 55 of this Act, except for income specified in Section 12 of this Act.

5. Obligation to pay income tax

Subject to Section 61 of this Act, any person referred to in Section 2 of this Act shall pay tax in accordance with this Act on the person’s taxable income derived during an accounting period ending in any tax year.

6. Obligation to pay withholding tax

The payer of any amount of income derived by a person from which withholding tax is required to be deducted under this Act must deduct withholding tax from the amount of the payment to the person and pay such amount to MIRA in accordance with this Act.

CHAPTER 3: TAXATION OF INCOME

7. Individual tax rates

(a) The taxable income of an individual shall be charged with income tax under Section 5 of this Act, at the following rates.

Tax bracket for taxable income derived in an accounting period	Tax rate
Not exceeding MVR 720,000/- (Seven Hundred and Twenty Thousand Maldivian Rufiyaa)	0% (Zero percent)
More than MVR 720,000/- (Seven Hundred and Twenty Thousand Maldivian Rufiyaa) but not exceeding MVR 1,200,000/- (One Million Two Hundred Thousand Maldivian Rufiyaa)	5.5% (Five point five percent)
More than MVR 1,200,000/- (One Million Two Hundred Thousand Maldivian Rufiyaa) but not exceeding MVR 1,800,000/- (One Million Eight Hundred Thousand Maldivian Rufiyaa)	8% (Eight percent)
More than MVR 1,800,000/- (One Million Eight Hundred Thousand Maldivian Rufiyaa) but not exceeding MVR 2,400,000/- (Two Million Four Hundred Thousand Maldivian Rufiyaa)	12% (Twelve percent)
More than MVR 2,400,000/- (Two Million Four Hundred Thousand Maldivian Rufiyaa)	15% (Fifteen percent)

(b) The aggregate of tax payable under subsection (a) shall be the aggregate of the amounts of tax payable under each tax bracket specified in subsection (a), computed separately.

8. Bank tax rate

(a) The taxable income of a bank shall be charged with income tax under Section 5 of this Act at the rate of 25% (Twenty-five percent) of its taxable income.

(b) For the purpose of this Section, the term “bank” refers to commercial banks licensed under the Maldives Banking Act (Law Number 24/2010).

9. Tax rates for persons other than individuals and banks

(a) The taxable income of any person, not being an individual or a bank, shall be charged with income tax under Section 5 of this Act, at the following rates.

Tax bracket for taxable income derived in an accounting period	Tax Rate
Not exceeding MVR 500,000/- (Five Hundred Thousand Maldivian Rufiyaa)	0% (Zero percent)
More than MVR 500,000/- (Five Hundred Thousand Maldivian Rufiyaa)	15% (Fifteen percent)

(b) The aggregate of tax payable under subsection (a) shall be the aggregate of the amounts of tax payable under each tax bracket specified in subsection (a), computed separately.

(c) Where a company is a member of a group of companies, the amount of MVR 500,000/- (Five Hundred Thousand Maldivian Rufiyaa) specified in this Section shall be divided between the companies in the group which are liable to tax under this Act, and the result shall replace MVR 500,000/- (Five Hundred Thousand Maldivian Rufiyaa).

10. Determination of income

- (a) The total income of a person resident in the Maldives shall consist of income derived from the Maldives and income derived outside the Maldives.
- (b) The total income of a person not resident in the Maldives shall consist of income derived from the Maldives.
- (c) Notwithstanding subsection (a), the total income of a person temporarily resident in the Maldives shall constitute income derived by the person from the Maldives only.

11. Income derived from the Maldives

The following income shall be deemed to be derived from the Maldives.

- (v) Money received under the "social health insurance scheme" established under the National Social Health Insurance Act (Law number 15/2011).

13. Accounting basis

- (a) A person subject to tax under this Act shall prepare financial statements where the person is required to do so under the Regulation made pursuant to this Act.
- (b) Except where subsection (a) applies, the person shall prepare financial statements in accordance with international accounting standards approved by the Commissioner General, using the accrual basis of financial accounting.
- (c) Notwithstanding subsection (b), a person may prepare financial statements using cash basis where the Regulation made pursuant to this Act permits.
- (d) Notwithstanding that a person has elected cash basis under subsection (c), the person shall apply the provisions prescribed in the Regulation made pursuant to this Act as respects capital expenditure in the computation of the person's taxable income.
- (e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any accounting standard, where a person prepares financial statements on accrual basis as pursuant to subsection (b):
 - (1) an unrealized gain, including an unrealized foreign exchange gain, shall be included in the computation of the person's taxable income for an accounting period to the extent that the gain arises in connection with assets and liabilities held on revenue account at the end of that accounting period.
 - (2) an unrealized gain, including an unrealized foreign exchange gain, which arises in connection with assets and liabilities held on capital account at the end of an accounting period shall not be included in the computation of the person's taxable income for that accounting period.
 - (3) an unrealized loss, including an unrealized foreign exchange loss, may be deducted in the computation of the person's taxable income for an accounting period in accordance with Section 17 of this Act, to the extent that the loss is incurred in connection with assets and liabilities held on revenue account at the end of an accounting period.
 - (4) an unrealized loss, including an unrealized foreign exchange loss, incurred in connection with assets and liabilities held on capital account at the end of an

- accounting period shall not be deducted in the computation of the person's taxable income for that accounting period.
- (f) The assets and liabilities that can be held on revenue and capital account and the manner in which this provision shall apply to hedging and other transactions shall be determined in the Regulation made pursuant to this Act.
 - (g) Notwithstanding subsection (b), interest received on a bank debt shall not be deemed as income where the principal amount of such debt or any interest payment thereof is estimated to be irrecoverable, and, such amount is computed based on an accounting standard approved by the Maldives Monetary Authority. An amount not deemed as income as such shall be included in the Interest Income on Suspense Account and shall be subject to tax in the accounting period in which such amount is treated as income in accordance with the accounting standards or in the accounting period during which it was received, whichever is the earlier.
 - (h) Notwithstanding the accounting standard based on which the financial statements are prepared, all financial statements shall be prepared and presented in accordance with the Regulation made pursuant to this Act, in Maldivian Rufiyaa or United States Dollar.

14. Bad debts recovered

Any amount derived by a person in full or partial satisfaction of a debt in respect of which a deduction has been made in accordance with Section 23 of this Act shall be treated as income of the person in the accounting period in which it is received.

15. Recovery of an expense deducted

Where a person has claimed a deduction for an amount of expenditure in an accounting period and the person is reimbursed, indemnified or compensated, or, if it is established that such person will be reimbursed, indemnified or compensated, for part or all of that amount in that accounting period or in a later accounting period, the amount of the reimbursement, indemnity or compensation shall be included in the person's total income in the accounting period in which the reimbursement, indemnity or compensation is received or established to be received.

CHAPTER 4: DEDUCTIONS

16. Deduction of expenses

- (a) If this chapter provides for the deduction of any expense, such expense may be deducted from the taxpayer's total income in the computation of that person's taxable income.
- (b) If any section of this Act refers to any expense authorised to be deducted in accordance with this Act, such reference shall be to the expenses specified in this Chapter, permitted to be deducted under subsection (a) of this Section in the computation of taxable income.

17. General rule

- (a) In the computation of the taxable income of a person, an expense shall be deducted only if such expense was incurred by that person in that accounting period, and was incurred wholly and exclusively for the purpose of production of that person's total income.
- (b) Where an expense incurred by a person during an accounting period was not incurred for the sole purpose of deriving total income, the proportion of that expenditure which was incurred for the purpose of deriving total income shall be allowed as a deduction under subsection (a).
- (c) The proportion of expenditure incurred for the purpose of deriving total income referred to in subsection (b) shall be determined in the Regulation made pursuant to this Act.
- (d) This section is subject to Section 32 of this Act.

18. Zakat

Notwithstanding Sections 17 and 32 of this Act, a payment of zakat al-mal by a person to the relevant Government institution shall be deductible in the computation of the person's taxable income in accordance with the Regulation made pursuant to this Act.

19. Pension contributions

Notwithstanding Sections 17 and 32 of this Act, a payment made by a person to the Maldives Retirement Pension Scheme established under the Maldives Pension Act (Law Number 8/2009) shall be deductible in the computation of that person's taxable income.

20. Welfare expenses

A person who derives income from a business may deduct an amount in respect of expenditure incurred on the welfare of employees if any one of the following conditions is satisfied:

- (a) The expenditure is incurred for the benefit of an employee who is incapacitated on medical grounds; or
- (b) The expenditure is incurred for the benefit of the surviving spouse or child, below the age of 18 (eighteen) years, of a deceased employee; or
- (c) The expenditure is a contribution to a fund established for the benefit of the person's employees, and the fund fully secures the rights of all employees to receive medical or other welfare support; or
- (d) The expenditure is incurred for the promotion of general employee welfare without discrimination between employees.

21. Donations

- (a) Notwithstanding Sections 17 and 32 of this Act, donations made by a taxpayer to a State institution or a charitable organization approved by the Commissioner General may be deducted in the computation of the taxpayer's taxable income for the accounting period in which such donation was made.
- (b) The maximum amount which may be deducted under this Section shall be 5% (Five per cent) of the taxable income derived before the deduction of donation specified in subsection (a) and loss relief granted under Chapter 5 of this Act.
- (c) The procedure on approving charitable organizations under this Act shall be determined in the Regulation made pursuant to this Act.

22. Interest

- (a) Interest paid on a loan obtained from any person, except a bank or a non-banking financial institution approved by the Commissioner General, by any person for the purpose of deriving the person's total income, shall be deductible up to a maximum amount of 6% (six percent) per annum, in the computation of that person's taxable income.
- (b) This Section is subject to Section 71 of this Act.

23. Bad debts and provision for doubtful debts

- (a) A person who derives income from a business is allowed a deduction for the amount of a bad debt only if,
 - (1) the amount of the debt has been included in the person's total income in the accounting period in which the debt is written off or in an earlier accounting period, or the money was lent in the ordinary course of business conducted by a bank or a non-banking financial institution; and
 - (2) the person has exhausted all reasonable steps to pursue payment of the debt; and
 - (3) the person reasonably believes at the time that the deduction is claimed that the debt is irrecoverable; and
 - (4) the debt is written off as a bad debt in the person's financial statements for the accounting period in which the deduction is claimed.
- (b) No deduction is allowed under this section in respect of any debt:
 - (1) in respect of which a collateral or guarantee has been determined (to the extent of the value of such collateral or guarantees); or
 - (2) in respect of which the person has initiated recovery proceedings in any Court and the decision of the Court is pending at the end of the accounting period; or
 - (3) that arose before the date of commencement of taxation under this Act.

24. Head office expenses

- (a) Where a non-resident person derives income through a permanent establishment in the Maldives, an amount in respect of head office expenses charged to the permanent establishment by that person may be deducted in the computation of the taxable income of the permanent establishment to the extent specified in the Regulation made pursuant to this Act.

- (b) Notwithstanding subsection (a), the maximum amount allowed as a deduction for head office expenses charged to the permanent establishment by the person in any accounting period shall not exceed 3% (three percent) of the total income generated from the general course of business of that permanent establishment.
- (c) For the purposes of this section, “head office expenses charged to the permanent establishment by the person” includes head office and other expenses charged to the permanent establishment by any person that is an associate of the person that owns the permanent establishment.

25. Capital allowance

- (a) If a person has incurred capital expenditure on an asset that the person has acquired for the purpose of deriving total income, the person may deduct capital allowance in respect of that asset in accordance with the Regulation made pursuant to this Act.
- (b) The Regulation made pursuant to this Act shall determine:
 - (1) the types of assets that fall within subsection (a);
 - (2) the types of assets that fall outside subsection (a), including land, goodwill, and intangible assets which are not capable of definitive valuation;
 - (3) the methods for valuation of assets for the computation of capital allowance;
 - (4) the rate of capital allowance applicable to an asset or class of assets;
 - (5) the method for calculation of any balancing charge or balancing allowance resulting from the disposal of an asset;
 - (6) any other matter required for the purpose of deducting capital allowance as specified in subsection (a).
- (c) In determining the rate of capital allowance under subsection (b)(4) for a building developed using funds from a housing loan issued by a bank licensed under the Maldives Banking Act (Law number 24/2010) or non-banking financial institution licensed under the Maldives Monetary Authority Act (Law number 6/81), the terms of the repayment period set for such loan shall be taken into consideration, and the Regulation made pursuant to this Act shall prescribe additional measures as regards to such determination.

26. Expenses incurred before commencement of business

- (a) Expenditure incurred by a person prior to the commencement of business for the purpose of deriving total income, shall be deemed as capital expenditure incurred on the date of commencement of business.
- (b) The extent to which expenditure referred to in subsection (a) is deductible and the method to be used for such deduction shall be determined in the Regulation made pursuant to this Act.
- (c) Any income derived by the person in connection with the business before the date of commencement of the business shall first be offset from any deductions allowed under this Section in the accounting period in which the business is commenced. Where such income exceeds the amount of expenditure that is deductible under this section, the amount of excess shall be treated as income derived during that accounting period.

27. Deduction from withholding tax of non-residents

- (a) Where non-resident withholding tax has been paid under Section 57 of this Act from income derived by a non-resident through a permanent establishment in the Maldives, such income for which non-resident withholding tax was accounted for shall be deductible in the computation of the taxable income of that permanent establishment.
- (b) Where the taxpayer has elected to apply subsection (a), no other amount shall be deducted in respect of such income in the computation of that person's taxable income.

28. Special deduction against rent from immovable property

- (a) A person who derives rent from immovable property situated in the Maldives and prepares financial statements on cash basis under Section 13(c) of this Act may elect to claim a deduction against the person's total rental income from immovable property for that tax year pursuant to this Section, in the computation of the person's taxable income.

- (b) In the computation of taxable income, a person who elects to claim a deduction under this Section may deduct an amount equal to 20% (twenty percent) of the amount of total rental income received in that accounting period as expenditure incurred in deriving the person's rental income.
- (c) Where a taxpayer makes the election under subsection (a), he shall not be allowed any other deduction in the computation of his taxable income in respect of expenditure incurred to derive that person's rental income.
- (d) Where a taxpayer has made the election under subsection (a), such election shall not be changed without the approval of the Commissioner General until the expiry of 5 (five) years from the accounting period in which such election was made.
- (e) The manner in which an election made under subsection (a) may be changed shall be prescribed in the Regulation made pursuant to this Act.

29. Calculation of balancing allowance and balancing charge

- (a) The tax written down value of an asset may be deducted from the income specified in Section 3(k) of this Act in a manner prescribed in the Regulation made pursuant to this Act.
- (b) Insurance compensation or any other form of consideration derived from the disposal of an asset shall constitute part of the total income and in such cases subsection (a) shall apply.

30. Calculation of capital gain or loss

- (a) The amount of gain specified in Section 3(l) of this Act shall be the amount by which the consideration received on disposal of the property referred to in that Section exceeds the cost base of the property at the time of its disposal.

- (b) Where the cost base of a property specified in Section 3(1) is greater than the consideration received on disposal of that property, the excess amount may be deducted in the computation of taxable profit in accordance with Section 34 of this Act.
- (c) For the purposes of this section, “cost base” on disposal of a property refers to the aggregate total of:
- (1) the amount of expenditure incurred by the person in acquiring or improving the property; and
 - (2) expenditure incurred directly in connection with the disposal of the property.
- (d) The Regulation made pursuant to this Act shall prescribe:
- (1) the method of calculation of the cost base for any of the following property being disposed:
 - (i) property acquired before the date of commencement of taxation under this Act;
 - (ii) property acquired or sold between related parties;
 - (2) any other matter for the purpose of implementing this section.
- (e) Notwithstanding subsections (a), (b) and (d), no gain or loss shall be taken into account in determining an individual’s taxable income in relation to any amount derived:
- (1) Where the total consideration received from the disposal of a property or similar properties at any given time is not more than MVR 40,000/- (forty thousand), and, the total consideration received from all such transactions does not exceed MVR 100,000/- (one hundred thousand) in an accounting period;
 - (2) from the disposal of a sole immovable property owned by an individual which also constitutes the individual’s principal private residence, in a manner prescribed in the Regulation made pursuant to this Act;
 - (3) from the transfer of movable, immovable, intellectual or intangible property to the individual’s spouse or child or mother or father;
 - (4) from the disposal of the individual’s personal clothes, home furniture, household appliances and loose tools;
 - (5) from the transmission of movable, immovable, intellectual or intangible property on the death of the individual to another person.

31. Deduction allowed only once

Notwithstanding that an amount of expenditure may be deductible under more than one section of this Act, the expenditure shall be deducted only once, and the total amount of the deduction shall not exceed the total amount of expenditure incurred.

32. Non-deductible expenses

(a) No deduction shall be allowed for the following expenditure in computing a person's taxable income:

- (1) Domestic or private expenditure;
- (2) capital expenditure except capital expenditure referred to in Section 26(a) of this Act and capital expenditure included in the calculation referred to in Section 30 of this Act (not including capital allowance deductible in accordance with Section 25 of this Act);
- (3) Expenditure incurred to derive income to which Section 12 applies;
- (4) Income tax payable in the Maldives or outside the Maldives;
- (5) Input tax deductible by a person registered under the Goods and Services Tax Act (Law No. 10/2011);
- (6) Subject to Sections 23, 36 and 39(b)(2) of this Act, provisions for expenditure or loss;
- (7) Fines or other amounts payable in respect of any failure to comply with any law or regulation made pursuant to a law;
- (8) Any bribe given to another person;
- (9) A premium payable to an issuer under a life insurance policy, other than a premium payable:
 - (i) by a person who is carrying on a business; and
 - (ii) under a key person insurance policy that covers the life of a key employee in that business; and
 - (iii) the proceeds of such policy are payable to the person who carries on the business and constitute part or the whole of the total income of that person;
- (10) Where the person is a partnership;

- (i) interest paid on any partner's capital; and
 - (ii) profit of the partnership distributed to the partners.
- (11) Any amount of excessive compensation determined under the Regulation made pursuant to this Act;
- (12) Employee withholding tax deductible under Section 54 of this Act and non-resident withholding tax deductible under Section 55 of this Act which have not been paid to MIRA as required under this Act;
- (13) any expenditure incurred before the date of commencement of taxation under this Act.
- (b) For the purposes of this Section, "domestic or private expenditure" of a person shall include:
- (1) Expenditure incurred in the maintenance of the person or any other person and any person's residence or other non-income producing asset;
 - (2) The cost of commuting to and from the person's residence and place of work;
 - (3) The cost of clothing worn to work, except where that clothing is a special clothing required for work not suitable to be worn outside of work;
 - (4) Where the person derives income from carrying on a business, the cost of education of the person that is not directly relevant to the business and the cost of education leading to a degree or other tertiary qualification, whether or not it is directly relevant to the business; and
 - (5) Where the person derives remuneration, the cost of education of the person whether or not it is directly relevant to the person's employment, except cost of trainings directly related to the person's employment and costs directly related to the performance of the person's employment or directly contributing to the person's employment promotion opportunities.
 - (6) Where the person derives remuneration, expenditure that is not necessary for the performance of the person's duties in the performance of his employment.

CHAPTER 5: LOSSES

33. Loss relief in future accounting periods

- (a) Where a person who derives business income has incurred a loss for any accounting period, that person may deduct such loss against the person's taxable income for future accounting periods.
- (b) Where under subsection (a) the person deducts such loss in the computation of the person's taxable income for future accounting periods:
 - (1) if the taxable income before loss relief under this Section for the accounting period in which such loss is being deducted is greater than 0 (zero), the amount of loss being deducted shall not exceed an amount equal to that amount greater than 0 (zero); and
 - (2) if the taxable income before loss relief for the accounting period in which such loss is being offset is less than or equal to 0 (zero), no amount shall be deducted in respect of such loss.
- (c) Where loss is carried forward to be set off against the taxable income of future accounting periods as pursuant to subsection (a)(a), such loss shall be carried forward for a period of not more than 5 (Five) years from the end of the accounting period in which the loss was incurred.
- (d) Losses shall be deducted as pursuant to subsection (a) in the order in which they are incurred, that is, an earlier loss shall be deducted before a later loss.
- (e) Subsection (a) to (d) shall apply where the following conditions are satisfied.
 - (1) in case of a company (other than a company listed on the Maldives Stock Exchange), only if, from the beginning of the accounting period in which the loss is incurred to the end of the accounting period in which the loss or part thereof is deducted from the taxable income of that period, the same shareholder or shareholders continuously own more than 50% (fifty percent) of the ordinary share capital of the company and the company conducts the same line of business during that period.

- (2) in case of a partnership, only if, from the beginning of the accounting period in which the loss is incurred to the end of the accounting period in which the loss or part thereof is deducted from the taxable income of that period, the same partners continuously own more than 50% (fifty percent) of the capital of the partnership and the partnership conducts the same line of business during that period.
- (3) in case of a trust, only if, from the beginning of the accounting period in which the loss is incurred to the end of the accounting period in which the loss or part thereof is deducted from the taxable income of that period, the same trustees own more than 50% (fifty percent) of the interest in capital or income of the trust and the trust conducts the same line of business during that period.

34. Deduction of capital loss

Any amount of a loss calculated in accordance with Section 30(b) of this Act shall only be deducted from gains calculated in accordance with that section in the same accounting period as that in which the loss was incurred, or to the extent that the loss exceeds those gains, such excess may be set off against the gains calculated in accordance with Section 30 of this Act in subsequent accounting periods, and the references to “loss” and “taxable income” in Section 33 of this Act shall be construed accordingly.

35. Rules on loss relief

- (a) For the purposes of this Section, “loss” means the amount by which deductions allowed under this Act (except for deductions allowed under Sections 18 and 21 of this Act) exceed a person’s total income.
- (b) The amount of loss deducted under Section 33 of this Act shall not exceed the amount of total loss for that period.
- (c) Subject to Chapter 13 of this Act, this Section shall only apply to losses arising after the date of commencement of taxation under this Act.

- (d) A person shall not set off a loss against another person's taxable income if the loss or a part thereof arose from any transaction or arrangement entered into by the person or any other person to reduce the person's liability to tax under this Act.

CHAPTER 6: SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR CERTAIN ENTITIES

36. Bank

- (a) Notwithstanding Section 23 of this Act, in the calculation of taxable income of a bank, a deduction is allowed for specific provisions for doubtful debts in respect of loans or advances, of an amount not exceeding the amount calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$(5\% \times a) - b$$

where:

"a" is the book value of loans and advances issued by the bank at the last day of the bank's accounting period; and

"b" is the amount of the provision for doubtful debts allowed as a deduction in the computation of taxable income of the preceding accounting period.

- (b) A deduction shall not be allowed for any provisions for doubtful debts in respect of any investments made by a bank, except an amount calculated under subsection (a).

37. Partnership

- (a) A partnership shall pay tax on its taxable income under this Act in its name and as if it were a separate legal entity.
- (b) Partners of a general partnership shall be jointly and severally liable to meet all of the obligations imposed on the partnership under this Act.

38. Trust

- (a) A trust shall pay tax under this Act on its taxable income as if it were a separate legal entity.
- (b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary specified in the deed of trust, the taxable income of a trust shall be taxable in accordance with the provisions of this Act.
- (c) The trustees of a trust shall be jointly and severally liable to meet all of the obligations imposed on the trust under this Act.

39. Insurance business

- (a) This Section shall apply to any person that carries on the business of insurance.
- (b) The taxable income for an accounting period of a person that carries on the business of insurance other than life insurance business shall be ascertained in accordance with the provisions in this Act and adjusted by:
 - (1) adding to the person's total income:
 - (i) the balance of a reserve for unexpired risks at the beginning of the accounting period; and
 - (ii) the amount of estimated claims reported but not paid at the beginning of the accounting period; and
 - (iii) the amount of claims incurred but not reported at the beginning of the accounting period where that amount has been reasonably estimated using a generally accepted actuarial method approved by the Commissioner General.
 - (2) Deducting from the person's total income:
 - (i) the balance of a reserve for unexpired risks at the end of the accounting period;
 - (ii) a reasonable estimate of claims reported but not paid in that accounting period; and
 - (iii) the amount of claims incurred but not reported at the beginning of the accounting period [end of the accounting period] where that amount has been reasonably estimated using a generally accepted actuarial method approved by the Commissioner General.

- (c) Any amount of expected net recoveries in respect of claims made (whether under a reinsurance contract or otherwise) shall be included as income in the calculation of taxable income of a person carrying on insurance business.
- (d) For the purposes of this section, “reserve for unexpired risks” refers to the amount of the expected value of future claims attributable to the unexpired period of insurance policies in force at a particular time, estimated using an actuarial method approved by the Commissioner General, less the amount of the person’s unearned premium reserve at that time, and, the reserve for unexpired risks at the beginning of the person’s first accounting period after the date of commencement of taxation under this Act shall include the balance of the person’s reserve for unexpired risks at the date of commencement of taxation under this Act.
- (e) The method of calculation of taxable income of a person that carries on the following types of businesses shall be determined in the Regulation made pursuant to this Act:
 - (1) life insurance, taking account of generally accepted actuarial methods; and
 - (2) life insurance and insurance other than life insurance.

40. International transportation business

- (a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, income specified in Section 11(r) of this Act shall be subject to income tax at the rate of 2% (two percent) of the gross income.
- (b) This Section shall not apply to any of the income specified below.
 - (1) Income exempted under Section 12 of this Act;
 - (2) The following income:
 - (i) income derived from a passenger who transits in the Maldives in the course of a journey between two places outside of the Maldives; or
 - (ii) income derived from a transshipment of livestock, mail, parcel, merchandise or goods.

CHAPTER 7: SUBMISSION OF TAX RETURN AND PAYMENT OF TAX

41. Filing tax return

- (a) Unless otherwise specified in this Act, every person who is within the charge to tax under this Act, shall submit a tax return and pay tax to MIRA in a manner prescribed in this Act, in respect of the person's taxable income for the accounting period ending in that given tax year.
- (b) Unless otherwise specified in this Act, every person who is within the charge to tax under this Act, shall submit an interim payment return and make an interim payment to MIRA for every tax year, in a manner prescribed in this Act.
- (c) The return specified in subsection (a) shall be submitted to MIRA using the return forms prescribed by MIRA, and where required under the Regulation made pursuant to this Act financial statements audited by an auditor licensed by the relevant regulatory authority shall accompany the return.
- (d) Persons required to prepare financial statements under the Regulation made pursuant to this Act shall prepare the returns specified in subsection (a) and (b) and pay tax as pursuant to those subsections in a manner prescribed in the Regulation made pursuant to this Act, in Maldivian Rufiyaa or United States Dollar.

42. Deadline for submission of tax return and payment of tax

Tax return shall be submitted and tax shall be paid under Section 41 of this Act on or before the following dates:

- (a) First interim payment and the first interim return: 31 July of that tax year;
- (b) Second interim payment and the second interim return: 31 January of the immediately following tax year;
- (c) Final payment and final tax return: 30 June of the immediately following tax year.

43. Calculation of interim payments

- (a) Each of the two interim payments payable by a person under Section 41 of this Act for the person's first tax year in which the person is liable to pay tax under this Act (referred to in this section as "the first tax year") shall be equal to one-half of the amount of tax payable for the accounting period ending in that tax year, estimated by the person.
- (b) For the tax year that immediately follows the first tax year, and for every tax year thereafter, each of the two interim payments payable by a person under Section 41 of this Act shall be equal to one-half of the total tax payable for the previous tax year.
- (c) For the purpose of subsection (b), if the amount of tax paid for the previous tax year was from the taxable income of an accounting period shorter than 12 (twelve) months or longer than 12 (twelve) months, the amount of interim payments required under Section 41 of this Act shall be the amount derived when one-half of the amount of tax payable by the person in the previous tax year is multiplied by the following fraction:

$$\frac{365}{a}$$

where "a" is the number of days in the accounting period ended in the previous tax year.

- (d) Notwithstanding subsection (b), where a person has reasonable grounds to expect that the tax payable for a tax year will be less than the tax payable for the previous tax year, that person may make a reasonable estimate of the amount of interim tax payable under Section 41 of this Act in accordance with the Regulation made pursuant to this Act.
- (e) Where subsection (d) applies, if the total amount of tax payable for the tax year to which the estimated amount of interim payment relates is greater than 20% (twenty percent) of the total of the interim payments estimated by the person, it shall be deemed that the person is liable to interim tax under subsection (b) and that the person has not paid the interim payment in full before the deadline.
- (f) In the calculation of the total of the interim tax payments payable for any tax year, the amount of any withholding tax deducted or expected to be deducted from the taxable income of the person for the accounting period ending in that tax year in accordance with

Section 54 or 55 of this Act may be deducted from the person's interim payment payable for that period in accordance with the Regulation made pursuant to this Act.

44. Final payment

The final payment of tax required to be paid under Section 42(c) of this Act, shall be the total amount of tax payable by the person for that tax year less the sum of the following amounts:

- (a) The total of the interim payments made by the person for that tax year; and
- (b) In accordance with the Regulation made pursuant to this Act, the remaining amount which has not been deducted in the computation of interim payments under Section 43 of this Act from the amount of withholding tax paid or payable from the person's taxable income under Section 54 or 55 of this Act.

45. Self-assessment

The self-assessed amount of tax (including any amount of loss) calculated by a person and included in the tax return submitted under this Act shall be deemed as the amount of tax payable by the person for the period to which such return is related.

46. Amending tax return

- (a) Where a person believes that there are omissions or the amounts declared are not correct in the tax return filed under this Act, and the person has not amended the return as pursuant to subsection (b), the person may correct the return by submitting an amended tax return before the expiry of 12 (twelve) months from the dates specified in Sections 42(c) and 58 of this Act.
- (b) Where the Commissioner General believes that the self-assessed amount of tax payable calculated in a person's tax return or amended tax return contains an error, subject to the Tax Administration Act (Law Number 3/2010) the Commissioner General may correct the error and notify the person of such that.
- (c) Where subsection (b) applies, the Commissioner General shall provide the person with reasons for the correcting the error, in writing.

47. Payment of tax whether or not a tax return is filed

A person shall make interim and final payments of tax under Section 42 of this Act, in relation to the relevant accounting period whether or not the person has filed a tax return or amended tax return with respect to that period.

48. Commissioner General may require tax returns in certain cases

- (a) This Section applies where the Commissioner General has reasonable grounds to believe that a person may commit or has committed any of the following events and a loss in tax revenue may result therefrom:
- (1) leave the Maldives;
 - (2) cease to be resident in the Maldives;
 - (3) terminate a permanent establishment in the Maldives;
 - (4) transfer any funds or assets out of Maldives;
 - (5) to do any other thing stipulated in the Regulation made pursuant to this Act.
- (b) Where subsection (a) applies, the Commissioner General may by notice require a person to deliver a tax return or returns relating to an accounting period or periods, within a period specified in the notice by the Commissioner General.
- (c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, the amount of tax assessed as a result of the application of this section shall be due and payable within 7 (seven) days from the date on which the return is required to be delivered.
- (d) Notwithstanding subsection (c), the amount of tax assessed as a result of the application of this section shall be paid before the occurrence of any of the events referred to in subsection (a).
- (e) Even where a person has filed a tax return pursuant to this section, the person shall file an additional tax return in accordance with the Regulation made pursuant to this Act if the Commissioner General requires the person to do so.

49. Circumstances where an interim payment and interim return are not required

Notwithstanding Section 42 of this Act, there is no obligation under Section 41(b) of this Act where the total amount of the interim payment payable under Section 43 of this Act is not more than MVR 20,000/- (twenty thousand Rufiyaa), or the amount of tax payable for the previous year was not more than MVR 20,000/- (twenty thousand Rufiyaa).

50. Circumstances where a tax return is not required to be filed

(a) Notwithstanding Section 41 of this Act, a person is not required to file a tax return for a tax year where:

- (1) the person's total income for the year is less than the amount specified in the Regulation made pursuant to this Act; or
- (2) the person's total income for the year is derived solely from one employer; or
- (3) the person is not a resident of the Maldives and does not have a permanent establishment in the Maldives and derives from the Maldives income described in Section 55 of this Act.

(b) Notwithstanding subsection (a)(2), a person whose total income for a tax year is derived solely from one employer may elect to file a tax return in accordance with Section 41 of this Act.

(c) Notwithstanding subsection (a)(3), a person who is not a resident of the Maldives and who derives income from the Maldives described in Sections 55(a)(1), 55(a)(7) and 55(a)(8) of this Act may elect to file a tax return in accordance with Section 41 of this Act.

51. Some circumstances where no interim or final tax is required

Notwithstanding anything in this Act, no interim or final tax payments shall be payable by persons specified in Section 50(a)(2) of this Act or in respect of income subject to tax under Section 55 of this Act.

52. Death of a taxpayer

- (a) Where a person who is liable to file a tax return or pay any amount of tax for a tax year dies during that year, the person who assumes the charge of the deceased person's tax obligations as required by the law or under Islamic Shariah, shall file a tax return and pay the amount of tax payable up to the date of death of the deceased person, in accordance with the Regulation made pursuant to this Act.
- (b) Where any tax return of, or any tax payable by, the deceased person is outstanding at the date of death, the person who assumed the charge of the deceased person's tax obligations as determined under subsection (a) shall be responsible to file such returns and pay the amount of tax outstanding, together with any penalties that may apply.
- (c) Where a person liable to pay tax dies, no fines shall accrue from the date of death of the deceased person until a person(s) is appointed by a court of law under subsection (a) as the person in charge of the deceased person's tax obligations.

CHAPTER 8: WITHHOLDING TAX

53. Types of withholding tax

Withholding tax charged under this Act is divided into the following 2 (two) categories:

- (a) Withholding tax required to be paid by an employer on behalf of an employee in accordance with Section 54 of this Act, from a payment of remuneration paid from an employer to an employee ("employee withholding tax").
- (b) Withholding tax required to be paid by a person in accordance with Section 55 of this Act on behalf of a non-resident person, from a payment made to the non-resident person ("non-resident withholding tax").

54. Employee withholding tax

- (a) Where an employer pays remuneration (whether or not in cash) to an employee, the employer (or any person acting on behalf of the employer) shall deduct employee withholding tax from the gross amount of each payment made each month in the following manner:

Remuneration subject to withholding tax [Tax brackets] (per month)	Tax rate
Not exceeding MVR 60,000 (Sixty Thousand Maldivian Rufiyaa)	0% (Zero percent)
More than MVR 60,000 (Sixty Thousand Maldivian Rufiyaa) but not exceeding MVR 100,000 (Hundred Thousand Maldivian Rufiyaa)	5.5% (Five point five percent)
More than MVR 100,000 (Hundred Thousand Maldivian Rufiyaa) but not exceeding MVR 150,000 (One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Maldivian Rufiyaa)	8% (Eight percent)
More than MVR 150,000 (One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Maldivian Rufiyaa) but not exceeding MVR 200,000 (Two Hundred Thousand Maldivian Rufiyaa)	12% (Twelve percent)
More than MVR 200,000 (Two Hundred Thousand Maldivian Rufiyaa)	15% (Fifteen percent)

- (b) The aggregate of employee withholding tax to be deducted under this Section shall be the aggregate of the amounts of tax payable under each tax bracket for remuneration subject to withholding tax specified in subsection (a) computed separately.
- (c) For the purposes of any provision of this Act which relates to employee withholding tax, remuneration subject to withholding tax refers to the total remuneration received by an employee in a month after the deduction of the amount contributed to the Maldives Retirement Pension Scheme referred to in Section 19 of this Act from the employee's remuneration for that month.

- (d) Where an employer (or any person acting on behalf of the employer) makes more than one payment of remuneration to any employee in any month, withholding tax shall be deducted from the total of the amounts of payments of remuneration made to the employee in that month.
- (e) Notwithstanding any other provision in this Act, where a person derives remuneration from more than 1 (one) employer, the Regulation made pursuant to this Act shall specify, in respect of that remuneration:
 - (1) the manner of calculation of employee withholding tax;
 - (2) the frequency of, and the deadlines for, filing employee withholding tax returns;
 - (3) the manner of calculation of employee withholding tax and the deadline for payments of employee withholding tax to MIRA; and
 - (4) other matters related to employee withholding tax.
- (f) Notwithstanding any other provision in this Act, where the amount of remuneration paid by an employer (or any person acting on behalf of the employer) is different from the regular amount of remuneration paid to the employee, or where the amount of remuneration varies monthly because of the nature of the employment or any other reason, the Regulation made pursuant to this Act shall specify the procedure for the payment of withholding tax in respect of such remuneration.
- (g) This Section shall not apply to income specified in Section 12 of this Act.

55. Non-resident withholding tax

- (a) Where a person that carries on any business in the Maldives makes any payment of the following kinds to a person who is not resident in the Maldives, the person shall deduct non-resident withholding tax from the gross amount of the payment at the rate of 10% (ten percent) of the gross amount of the payment:
 - (1) Rent in relation to immovable property situated in the Maldives;

- (2) Royalty;
 - (3) Interest (other than interest paid or payable to a bank or non-banking financial institution approved by MIRA);
 - (4) Dividends;
 - (5) Fees for technical services;
 - (6) Commissions paid in respect of services supplied in the Maldives;
 - (7) Payments made in respect of performances in the Maldives by public entertainers;
 - (8) Payments made for carrying out research and development in the Maldives;
 - (9) Payments made to a non-resident contractor;
 - (10) Insurance premium paid to a non-resident insurer.
- (b) Where a person conducting business in the Maldives makes a payment for reinsurance premium to a reinsurer that is not a resident in the Maldives, a total of 3% (three percent) of the amount of reinsurance premium shall be deducted from the amount of reinsurance premium paid as the non-resident withholding tax.
- (c) For the purposes of this section:
- (1) Where at the time of payment in respect of the services specified in subsection (a) and (b) it cannot be determined whether or not the person who receives the payment is resident in the Maldives, it shall be deemed that the person is not a resident in the Maldives and non-resident withholding tax shall be deducted accordingly.
 - (2) royalty paid for the use of, or the right to use of a copyright shall be royalty paid for the use of, or right to use of the following types of copyright :
 - (i) a copyright in bespoke software, or
 - (ii) a copyright that the payer has the right to exploit, or
 - (iii) a copyright in software that the payer has the right to copy, modify, reverse engineer or decompile.
 - (3) “Non-resident contractor” refers to a person not resident in the Maldives who undertakes, under a contract, agreement, or arrangement (other than as an employee):
 - (i) to perform services of any kind in the Maldives; or
 - (ii) to supply the use of, or right to use, in the Maldives any services of another person.

- (4) "Reinsurance premium" refers to premium paid to a person who enters into a contract of insurance with an insurer under which the insurer is secured, fully or partially, by the person against a risk.
 - (5) "Public entertainer" refers to a stage, radio, television or internet artiste, a musician, an athlete or an individual exercising any profession or vocation of a similar nature.
- (d) This Section shall not apply to payments of the following nature:
- (1) Payments made by a State institution;
 - (2) Payments made to a non-resident by persons mandated under Law Number 15/2011 (National Social Health Insurance Act) to carry out the social protection schemes and programmes established under that law.
 - (3) Payments exempt under Section 12 of this Act.

56. Payment deemed to be after withholding tax deduction

- (a) Where a payment is subject to Section 54 or 55 of this Act and the payer fails to deduct the correct amount of withholding tax from the gross amount of the payment, the amount actually paid to the recipient of the payment shall be deemed to have been made after the deduction of the correct amount of withholding tax.
- (b) The method of calculation of the amount of withholding tax payable where subsection (a) applies shall be specified in the Regulation made pursuant to this Act.

57. Obligation to file withholding tax return and pay withholding tax

- (a) A person liable to deduct withholding tax pursuant to Sections 54 and 55 of this Act shall submit a tax return to MIRA for each month in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and pay to MIRA the amount of withholding tax calculated in accordance with Sections 54 and 55 of this Act.
- (b) Subsection (a) shall apply even if the person who makes a payment subject to withholding tax fails to deduct the amount of withholding tax pursuant to Sections 54 and 55 of this Act.

- (c) The return specified in subsection (a) shall be submitted to MIRA using the return form prescribed by MIRA.
- (d) The tax return specified in subsection (a) shall be presented, and the amount of withholding tax shall be paid, in a currency specified under the Regulation made pursuant to this Act.

58. Due date for the submission of withholding tax return and payment of withholding tax

A person who is required to file a withholding tax return and pay withholding tax under Section 57 of this Act, shall submit the withholding tax return and pay withholding tax to MIRA by the 15th day of the month following the month in which a payment subject to withholding tax under Section 54 or 55 of this Act was made.

59. Employee withholding tax return

- (a) Where an employer or a person acting on behalf of an employer (referred to in this Section as “the payer”) is required to deduct withholding tax from the remuneration payable to the payer’s employees under Section 54 of this Act, the payer shall submit a return (“Employee Withholding Tax Return”) to MIRA by the due date specified in Section 58 of this Act.
- (b) The Payer shall submit a withholding tax reconciliation return to MIRA for every tax year, in a manner prescribed in the Regulation made pursuant to this Act.
- (c) The tax returns specified in subsections (a) and (b) shall be submitted using a return form prescribed for that purpose by MIRA.

60. Non-resident withholding tax return

- (a) Where in any month, a person conducting business in the Maldives or a person acting on behalf of such person, makes a payment of an amount referred to in Section 55(a) and (b) of this Act to a person who is not a resident in the Maldives, the payer shall submit a return (“Non-resident Withholding Tax Return”) to MIRA by the due date specified in Section 58 of this Act.

- (b) The tax return specified in subsection (a) shall be submitted using a return form prescribed for that purpose by MIRA.

61. Non-resident withholding tax is a final tax

Subject to Section 50(c) of this Act, where Section 55 of this Act applies, Section 5 of this Act shall not apply and the amount of non-resident withholding tax imposed under Section 55 of this Act shall be the final and full amount of the tax liability of the non-resident person in respect of the income that was taxed in accordance with Section 55 of this Act.

62. Withholding tax certificate

- (a) Where a person requests, a certificate which shows the following information shall be provided by MIRA to the person who has paid to MIRA an amount in respect of withholding tax under Sections 54 and 55 of this Act, within 7 (seven) days from the date of such request.

- (1) The name of the recipient of the income subject to withholding tax;
- (2) The name of the payer of the income subject to withholding tax;
- (3) The total of the gross amount of the payments made to the recipient (before deducting the amount of withholding tax);
- (4) The total amount of withholding tax paid to MIRA;
- (5) The year to which the information required under this Section relates;
- (6) The date of issuance of the certificate.

- (b) Where the person whose income was subject to the deduction of withholding tax, requests for a certificate specified in subsection (a), such certificate shall be provided to such person by the person making the payment of withholding tax before the 30th of April of the tax year immediately following the tax year to which the certificate relates.

63. Deduction of withholding tax from subsequent payments

- (a) Where any amount of withholding tax that is required to be deducted from a payment in accordance with this Act is not deducted, the payer may deduct such amount from any further amounts payable to the person by the payer.
- (b) Subsection (a) shall not affect the application of any other provision of this Act.

CHAPTER 9: REGISTRATION

64. Obligation to register

- (a) A person specified in Section 2 of this Act as being within the scope of this Act (other than persons specified in Section 61 of this Act and persons specified in the Regulation made pursuant to this Act) shall apply to MIRA to be registered for the purposes of this Act, within the period specified in Section 65 of this Act.
- (b) Notwithstanding subsection (a), the Commissioner General may, at his discretion, register a person with MIRA based on information obtained under Section 21(b) of the Tax Administration Act (Law number 3/2010) or by any other means, and notify the person of such registration, and the registration of a person with MIRA as such does not relieve the person of any fines or penalties which may be applicable to that person as a result of failure to act in accordance with Section 65 of this Act.

65. Application for registration

- (a) Persons to whom Section 64 of this Act applies shall apply for registration with MIRA within the following periods:
 - (1) A person who derives income from the Maldives at the date of entry into force of this Act, irrespective of whether or not that person is a resident of the Maldives, shall apply for registration within 60 (sixty) days from that date.

- (2) An employer of an employee who works in the Maldives at the date of entry into force of this Act shall apply for registration of both the employer and the employee within 60 (sixty) days from that date.
 - (3) A person who is a resident of the Maldives and derives income from outside the Maldives at the date of entry into force of this Act shall apply for registration within 60 (sixty) days from that date.
 - (4) A person who begins to derive income from the Maldives after the date of entry into force of this Act shall apply for registration within 30 (thirty) days from the date such income was first derived.
 - (5) A person who commences business in the Maldives under a permit to conduct business after the date of entry into force of this Act shall apply for registration within 30 (thirty) days from the issuance of such permit from the relevant authority.
 - (6) A person who becomes an employer of an employee who works in the Maldives after the date of entry into force of this Act shall apply for registration of both the employer and the employee within 30 (thirty) days from the date that the person became the employer.
 - (7) A person who is a resident of the Maldives and begins to derive income from outside the Maldives after the date of entry into force of this Act shall apply for registration within 30 (thirty) days from the date such income was first derived.
- (b) Notwithstanding subsection (a), where a person is required to pay any tax or file any return under this Act, that person shall register with MIRA before the due date for the first payment of tax or the submission of first return.
- (c) Notwithstanding subsection (a), where an employer is required to pay any tax or file any return under Section 57 of this Act in respect of an employee, that employer shall register the employee with MIRA before the due date for the first payment of tax or submission of first return.
- (d) At the date of application for registration of an employee under subsection (b) and (c), if the employee is registered with MIRA under subsection (a), subsections (b), (c) and (e) shall not apply to that employee.

- (e) Income or payments that are subject to tax under this Act and are derived or made before the date of registration of the person deriving the income or making the payment, such income or payment shall be subject to tax notwithstanding that they were derived or made before that person's registration.

CHAPTER 10: TAX AVOIDANCE

66. General anti-avoidance rule

- (a) This Section shall apply where the Commissioner General has reasonable grounds to believe that one of the purposes of any arrangement or transaction entered into in any accounting period was the avoidance of tax or obtaining of a reduction in tax liability.
- (b) The Commissioner General may void an arrangement or transaction entered into by any person where such person has obtained a tax advantage from or under such tax avoidance arrangement or transaction, whether by issuing an assessment in accordance with Section 39 of the Tax Administration Act (Law number 3/2010) or otherwise.

67. Arrangements or transactions between associates

- (a) This Section shall apply in respect of an arrangement or transaction between two persons, in the following circumstances:
 - (1) Such arrangement or transaction was entered into between two persons who were associates;
 - (2) the terms on which the arrangement or transaction was entered into between the persons were not arm's length terms;
 - (3) had the arm's length conditions been made or imposed:
 - (i) the amount of the income of one of those persons for an accounting period would be greater; or
 - (ii) the amount of any deduction that may be allowed to one of those persons for an accounting period would be less; or

- (iii) the amount of any loss of one of those persons for an accounting period would be less.
- (b) Where this Section applies to any person in an accounting period, the taxable income of that person shall be computed in accordance with the arm's length terms, irrespective of the actual terms of such arrangement or transaction.
- (c) Where this Section applies to a person and such person has not computed the person's taxable income in accordance with subsection (b), MIRA may make one or more of the following adjustments:
 - (1) increase the amount of the income of the person specified in subsection (a)(3)(i);
 - (2) reduce the amount of the deduction that may be allowed to the person specified in subsection (a)(3)(ii);
 - (3) reduce the amount of loss of the person specified in subsection (a)(3)(iii).
- (d) Where a person carries on business through a permanent establishment, this Section shall apply as if the person and the permanent establishment are separate and distinct persons.

68. Exempt arrangements and transactions [Transfer Pricing Documentation]

- (a) This Section shall not apply where:
 - (1) the arrangement or transaction undertaken by a business categorized as either a micro, small or medium sized business under the Law on Small and Medium Enterprises (Law number 6/2013); or
 - (2) the arrangement or transaction is made in respect of an exempt income.
- (b) Every person liable to income tax under this Act, shall prepare and maintain documentation (herein referred to as "transfer pricing documentation") in respect of transactions and arrangements entered into between associates and the documentation shall include the following information:
 - (1) details of the commercial and financial relations between the two parties involved as respects the transaction; and
 - (2) the terms and conditions made or imposed between the two parties involved as respects the transaction or arrangement; or

- (3) an explanation as to why the terms of the transaction are concluded as at arm's length; and
 - (4) any other information as may be prescribed in the Regulation made pursuant to this Act.
- (c) The transfer pricing documentation required to be maintained under subsection (b) shall be prepared and finalized by the due date for the submission of tax return for the accounting period to which the transaction or arrangement relates.

69. Disposition in favour of minor to be disregarded

- (a) Where any income producing property is transferred to a person who has not reached the age of 18 on the first day of any tax year, the income derived from that property shall be treated as being derived by the transferor.
- (b) Where subsection (a) applies the transferee shall not be personally responsible for complying with any of the requirements imposed under this Act, and it is the responsibility of the person who transferred the property to comply with the requirements imposed under this Act.
- (c) For the purposes of this Act, where a person who has not reached the age of 18 on the first day of any tax year derives any income, such income shall be treated as income derived by the person who is appointed as the person's legal guardian.

70. Controlled foreign entities

- (a) This Section applies when a company, partnership, trust or other entity that is not a resident of the Maldives (referred to in this Section as a "foreign entity") is controlled by 5 (five) or fewer residents of the Maldives.
- (b) The taxable income of the foreign entity specified in subsection (a) shall be calculated in accordance with the provisions of this Act.
- (c) Each person that is a resident of the Maldives and holds a share in the capital of the foreign entity shall include in its taxable income its share of the taxable income of the foreign entity, calculated using the following formula:

$$\frac{\text{resident shareholder's interest}}{\text{Total of all shareholder's interests}} \times \text{Taxable income}$$

where:

“resident shareholder’s interest” means:

- (1) where the foreign entity is a company, other incorporated body or partnership, the average of the voting rights of the person who is a resident in the Maldives, in the share capital of the entity throughout the accounting period, calculated on a daily basis; and
- (2) where the foreign entity is not a company, other incorporated body or partnership, the average of the interest of the person who is a resident in the Maldives, in the capital of the entity throughout the accounting period, calculated on a daily basis;

 - (ii) The maintenance of stock of goods or merchandise belonging to the enterprise solely for the purpose of storage, display or delivery;
 - (iii) The maintenance of stock of goods or merchandise belonging to the enterprise solely for the purpose of processing by another enterprise;
 - (iv) The maintenance of a fixed place of business solely for the purpose of purchasing goods or merchandise or of collecting information, for the enterprise;
 - (v) The maintenance of a fixed place of business solely for the purpose of carrying on, for the enterprise, any other activity;
 - (vi) The maintenance of a fixed place of business solely for any combination of activities mentioned in subsections 79(gg)(4)(i) to 79(gg)(4)(v), provided that such activity or, in the case of subsection 79(gg)(4)(vi), the overall activity of the fixed place of business, is of a preparatory or auxiliary character.
- (5) Subsection 79(gg)(4) shall not apply to a fixed place business that is used or maintained by an enterprise if the same enterprise or a closely related enterprise carries on business activities at the same place in Maldives or at another place in the Maldives and

- (i) that place or other place constitutes a permanent establishment for the enterprise or the closely related enterprise under the provisions of this subsection; or
- (ii) the overall activity resulting from the combination of the activities carried on by the two enterprises at the same place, or by the same enterprise or closely related enterprises at the two places, is not of a preparatory or auxiliary character, provided that the business activities carried on by the two enterprises at the same place, or by the same enterprise or closely related enterprises at the two places, constitute complementary functions that are part of a cohesive business operation.

(6) Notwithstanding subsections (gg)(1) and (gg)(2), but subject to subsection (gg)(8), where a person (herein referred to as the “first person”) is acting in the Maldives on behalf of an enterprise (herein referred to as the “second person”), and, in doing so, habitually concludes contracts, or habitually plays the principal role leading to the conclusion of contracts that are routinely concluded without material modification by the enterprise, and these contracts are:

- (i) in the name of the second person; or
- (ii) for the transfer of the ownership of, or for the granting of the right to use, property owned by the second person or the first person has the right to use; or
- (iii) for the provision of services by the second person, the second person shall be deemed to have a permanent establishment in Maldives in respect of any activities which the first person undertakes for the second person, unless the activities of the first person are limited to those specified in subsection (gg)(4) which, if exercised through a fixed place of business (other than a fixed place of business to which subsection (gg)(5) would apply), would not make this fixed place of business a permanent establishment for the purposes of this Section.

- (7) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section, an insurance enterprise shall, except in regard to re-insurance, be deemed to have a permanent establishment in the Maldives if it collects premiums in the territory of Maldives or insures risks situated therein through person other than an independent agent specified in subsection (gg)(8).
- (8) Subsection (gg)(6) shall not apply where the person (agent) acting in the Maldives on behalf of the first person carries on business in the Maldives as an independent agent and acts for the first person in the ordinary course of that business. Where, however, the agent acts exclusively or almost exclusively on behalf of one or more enterprises to which it is closely related, that agent shall not be considered to be an independent agent for the purposes of this subsection.
- (9) The fact that a person doing business in the Maldives is controlled by a person not resident in the Maldives shall not of itself constitute either person a permanent establishment of the other.
- (10) For the purpose of this subsection, two persons are closely related to one another if, based on all the relevant facts and circumstances, one has control of the other or both are under the control of the same persons. In any case, where one person possesses directly or indirectly more than 50% (fifty percent) of interest in the other (or, in the case of a company, more than 50% (fifty percent) of the aggregate vote and value of the company's shares or of the beneficial equity interest in the company), the two persons shall be considered closely related to one another.

- (vv) "Fees for technical services" means any payment in consideration for rendering managerial, technical or consultancy services or a service of similar nature, that does not constitute remuneration for employment.
- (ww) "Tax year" means the period from 1 January to the 31 December of the Gregorian calendar year.
- (xx) "Taxable income" means the amount of income derived by a person after deducting expenses authorised under this Act and loss relief as permitted under Section 33 of this Act from the total income of a person during an accounting period.
- (yy) "Partnership" means:
- (1) a partnership to which the Partnership Act (Law Number 23/2011) applies; and
 - (2) 2 (two) or more persons that share the gross receipts and expenses, or the profit or loss, of an activity, whether or not they use a separate name and whether or not the persons have joint or common rights in any property that produces the receipts.
- (zz) "Total income" means the total income, other than income specified under Section 12 of this Act, derived by a person during an accounting period before subtraction of any deductions.
- (aaa) "General partnership" means a general partnership defined in section 3(a) of the Partnership Act (Law Number 13/2011).

80. Payment

- (a) Any reference in this Act to payment means a transfer of funds, crediting a person's account (including a current account), amounts recorded as payables in the books of accounts of a person, an offset in the payer's accounting records against an amount owing to the payer, or otherwise dealing with an amount in the interest or on behalf of the payee.

- (b) Notwithstanding subsection (a), for the purpose of charging employee withholding tax under Section 54 of this Act and non-resident withholding tax under Section 55 of this Act, the time of payment to a non-resident or the time of payment of remuneration to an employee, shall be the time at which the payment was actually made or the time at which the payment became payable, whichever is the earlier.
- (c) Notwithstanding subsection (b), the Regulation made pursuant to this Act shall provide the manner in which withholding tax shall be charged in circumstances where it cannot be determined whether or not an amount is payable in the period to which it relates, or where the exact amount payable cannot be determined, because of the nature of the payment concerned.

81. Timing of residence

A person shall be deemed to have commenced residence in the Maldives in the tax year in which the person becomes a resident of the Maldives on the earliest of:

- (a) in the case of an individual:
- (1) the day on which the person first has a permanent place to live in the Maldives; or
 - (2) the first day of the 183 (one hundred and eighty-three) day period specified in the definition of "resident" in Section 79(kk); or
 - (3) who is an employee or official of the Government of the Maldives and is posted overseas during the tax year, the earliest of:
 - (i) the day that the person commences employment or work overseas; or
 - (ii) the dates determined under subsections (a)(1) and (a)(2);
- (b) in the case of a company:
- (1) the day on which the company was incorporated; or
 - (2) the day on which the company established its head office in the Maldives; or
 - (3) the day on which the control and management of the company was first exercised in the Maldives.

82. Series of transactions

For the purposes of this Act, a transaction is entered into indirectly by two or more persons if there is a series of transactions which are linked and those persons are parties to one or more of the transactions in the series, whether or not they are parties to the same transaction.

83. Appointed person

In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, if a person holds something or does something as an appointed person for another person, the other person shall be treated as holding or doing the thing.

84. Use of singular and plural

In this Act, words in the singular include the plural and words in the plural include the singular.

85. Repealed Acts

(a) The following Acts shall be repealed from the date of commencement of taxation under this Act and the taxation systems imposed under those acts shall be continued under this Act.

(1) The Business Profit Tax Act (Law number 5/2011); and

(2) The Bank Profit Tax Act (Law number 9/85).

(b) The following sections of the following acts shall be repealed from the date of commencement of taxation under this Act.

(1) Tax imposed under Section 18(d) of the Maldivian Land Act (Law number 1/2002);

(2) Tax imposed under Section 9(g) of the Maldivian Land Act (Law number 1/2002) amended via the Fourth Amendment to the Maldivian Land Act (Law number 4/2015);

(3) Tax imposed under Section 19(e) of the Maldivian Land Act (Law number 1/2002) amended via the Sixth Amendment to the Maldivian Land Act (Law number 39/2015);

- (4) Remittance tax imposed under Chapter 11 of the Employment Act (Law number 2/2008) amended via the Fifth Amendment to the Employment Act (Law number 22/2016).
- (c) The Law on Taxation of Petroleum Companies Operating in Maldives (Law Number 1/89) shall be repealed from the date of commencement of taxation under this Act.

CHAPTER 13: TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

86. Persons to whom the transitional provisions apply

This Chapter applies to the following persons to whom this Act applies.

- (a) Persons subject to tax under the Business Profit Tax Act (Law Number 5/2011), immediately before the date of commencement of this Act; and
- (b) Persons subject to tax under the Bank Profit Tax Act (Law number 9/85), immediately before the date of commencement of this Act.

87. Relief from registration

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, a person registered with MIRA under the Tax Administration Act (Law number 3/2010) need not be registered under this Act, unless otherwise is required under the Regulation made pursuant to this Act.

88. Continuation of obligations

Notwithstanding Section 85(a), the implementation of those acts and the application of the following aspects as regards those acts, for the periods until the commencement of taxation under this Act, shall be carried out in the manner in which such aspects would have been applied if those acts were in effect.

- (a) rights and privileges granted under those acts;
- (b) obligations and responsibilities specified under those acts;

- (c) carrying out of audits, investigations and assessments to verify and determine the accuracy of the amount of tax paid under those acts and determination of fines and penalties;
- (d) recovery of tax, fines, interest and other monies receivable under those acts;
- (e) relief from penalties.

89. Deadline for payment of tax under repealed acts

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Business Profit Tax Act (Law number 5/2011) and Bank Profit Tax Act (Law number 9/85), a person subject to this Chapter shall end the latest accounting period subject to tax under any of the aforementioned acts before the date of commencement of taxation under this Act and a new accounting period shall be commenced on the date of commencement of taxation under this Act.

90. Settlement of interim payment

Notwithstanding Section 43(a) of this Act, and subject to all the provisions in Section 41 of this Act, where a person who was subject to the Business Profit Tax Act (Law number 5/2011) and Bank Profit Tax Act (Law number 9/85) before the date of commencement of taxation under this Act has to make interim payments under Section 41 of this Act, such interim payments shall each be equivalent to one-half of the person's tax liability for the person's last accounting period which was subject to tax under those acts.

91. Tax paid in excess

Any amount paid in excess of the amount liable under the Business Profit Tax Act (Law number 5/2011) or Bank Profit Tax Act (Law number 9/85) shall be treated as an amount paid in excess under this Act.

92. Set off of loss

- (a) Any balance of loss determined under the Business Profit Tax Act (Law number 5/2011) which was not set off under Section 11 of that Act may be setoff under Section 33 of this Act.
- (b) For the purpose of Section 33 of this Act where subsection (a) applies, the accounting period in which the loss was incurred shall be the period in which such loss was computed under the Business Profit Tax Act (Law number 5/2011).

93. Capital loss

Where, at the end of the last accounting period which was subject to tax under the Business Profit Tax Act (Law number 5/2011), a person has any balance of realized loss which arose in connection to assets and liabilities held on capital account which has not been set off against a realized gain on such capital account, that amount of realized loss may be deducted in the computation of the person's taxable income in accordance with Section 34 of this Act.

94. Capital allowance

- (a) Where Section 25(a) of this Act applies to an asset in respect of which an amount has been deducted as capital allowance under the Business Profit Tax Act (Law number 5/2011) or as depreciation under the Bank Profit Tax Act (Law number 9/85), the amount of capital expenditure incurred on that asset shall be the amount of capital expenditure determined for the calculation of capital allowance and depreciation attributable to that asset under those Acts.
- (b) Capital allowance deducted under the Business Profit Tax Act (Law number 5/2011) or depreciation deducted under the Bank Profit Tax Act (Law number 9/85) shall be deemed to be capital allowance deducted under Section 25 of this Act.

95. Lease of immovable property

- (a) Where a person who has made an election under Section 9 of the Business Profit Tax Act (Law number 5/2011) in respect of income derived by that person from the lease of immovable property, and if that person is entitled to the provisions of Section 28 of this Act in the person's first tax year under this Act, such person shall be deemed to have made an election under Section 28 of this Act.

- (b) This Section shall not apply to a person who will be eligible to change the election made by that person under Section 9 of this Act if the Business Profit Tax Act (Law number 5/2011) was still in effect on the date of commencement of taxation under this Act.
- (c) Where subsection (a) applies, the period specified in Section 28(d) of this Act shall be counted starting from the accounting period in which an election was made under Section 9 of the Business Profit Tax Act (Law number 5/2011).

96. Provision for bad debts and other liabilities

- (a) Section 23(b)(3) of this Act shall not apply to amounts included in the computation of taxable profit under the Business Profit Tax Act (Law number 5/2011) or the Bank Profit Tax Act (Law number 9/85).
- (b) Where in the latest accounting period before the date of commencement of taxation under this Act, an amount has been deducted under Section 9(3) of the Bank Profit Tax Regulation, the value of "b" in the formula specified in Section 36(a) of this Act shall be the amount determined in accordance with Section 9(3) of that Regulation.

97. Account balance

Where any reference has to be made to any balance in a person's account on the date of commencement of taxation under this Act or at the end of the preceding accounting period, the account balance at the end of the last accounting period subject to tax under the Business Profit Tax Act (Law number 5/2011) or the Bank Profit Tax Act (Law number 9/85) shall be used.

98. First interim payment of banks under this Act

Notwithstanding Section 42 of this Act, the first interim payment required under Section 41 of this Act for the first accounting period of a bank ending on or after the date of commencement of taxation under this Act, shall be paid on or before the 30th of September falling within the bank's first accounting period.

99. Formulation of the Regulation on transitional provisions

All other requirements and obligations of a taxpayer arising as regards the change of the tax system imposed under the Business Profit Tax Act (Law number 5/2011) or the Bank Profit Tax Act (Law number 9/85) to this Act shall be determined in the Regulation made pursuant to this Act.
